

SSV celebrating at EHP BlockFest with Mitsubishi Corporation, SunWork and BAAQMD

Update from Executive Director

Sustainable Silicon Valley is thrilled to celebrate our Net Positive Communities- East Palo Alto project at the Ecumenical Hunger Program (EHP) funded by the Mitsubishi Corporation. At EHP's annual party BlockFest, Board Chair, Kurt Taylor, said the installation of solar brings EHP into the future. And, to build on this excitement, BAAQMD (Air District) joined in the festivities as SSV ramps up its program to conduct free home energy and water audits for EPA residents. We look forward to continuing our work in EPA.

Keynote speaker: Nancy Pfund,
Founder and Managing Partner of
DBL Partners
